The Day My Mommy Slept The Day Mommy Slept In! is simply a wonderful children tale, I admire Kally Mayer for writing it, the illustrations are very imaginative and unique also and paints a nice picture of the story which will make children, its intended audience gravitates towards it. Some children books I have read and reviewed in the past seemed too rushed and not properly produced even it they were meant for ... The Day My

In!" Written by Kally Mayer and Illustrated by Mindy Liang. This cute little book is the third one I have read by this author, and another hit with my daughters, ages 4 and 2.

In ... It is quite common for a person with dementia, especially in the later stages, to spend a lot of their time sleeping - both during the day and night. This can sometimes be distressing for the person's family and friends, as they may worry that something is wrong. Sleeping more and more is a common feature of later-stage dementia. Is it typical for people with dementia to sleep a lot ... My mum sleeps for days at a time. An earthquake wouldn't rouse her. I give her fluid with a syringe because she can swallow in her sleep. Then she'll wake up bright as a button and complain that I'm starving her. Sleeping all the time. | Dementia Talking Point Me and my mother went on hiking 4 days back at the camping area and woods nearby. We had a tent, and some food.
